

The Only One
Price Clothier in Guthrie

....The Season's Newest.. Novelties in Men's Furnishings

..Men's Suits of Today..

Copyright,
1908, by
L. ADLER,
BROS. & CO.

There's a certain luxury about our Men's Suits that a man fully appreciates when he's inside of them.

Our Suits express a certain style and exclusiveness in conservative as well as in extreme models.

They are Suits of Today!

The broad collar and lapel, the artistic drapery of the coat outlined to the form--the perfect hanging trousers, the skillful tailoring of each garment, together with the new and Exclusive Fabrics form a combination nothing short of perfection in clothes building.

We INVITE YOU to COME IN and examine and try on our New Men's 1908

SUITS, TOP COATS, RAINCOATS, OVERCOATS

Overcoats of Quality and Character

LEADING CLOTHIER

PERSONAL AND LOCAL

Attorney E. G. McAdams is here from Oklahoma City on matters before the Supreme court.

Insurance Commissioner T. J. McComb returned this morning from Oklahoma City.

Ross N. Lillard returned this morning from Edmond.

Will Grant is in Perry.

Attorney H. E. Aup left this morning for his farm near Mulvan.

J. J. O'Rourke is in El Reno today.

Deputy Marshal Wiley Hulme is here from Hominy.

C. M. Sheriff John Mahoney is in Oklahoma City today attending the preliminary trial of Harry Parker, alias Forest Mingle, charged with murdering Mrs. Harry Pearson, in Oklahoma City. Sheriff Mahoney will be one of the principal witnesses for the state in the trial.

Representative W. A. Duran is here from Muskogee today. He leaves this evening for Red Rock where he will speak in the interest of the candidacy of Henry S. Johnston, the Democratic nominee for congress. Mr. Duran will spend the balance of the week in the First district. He is one of the best Indian orators in the state.

A. A. Beyer, cashier of the Guthrie Savings bank, returned this morning from a three weeks' visit in Galveston and other Texas points.

Chief Justice R. L. Williams returned this afternoon from Duran, where he has been for the past week.

G. Z. Page has returned to Carney.

President L. E. Page, of the Langston University, is in the city.

J. W. Oldham is in Crescent.

Dr. A. C. Reeder left last evening for Jet on a duck hunting trip.

Otto Zimmerman came up from Oklahoma City last night to assist the orchestra at the Brooks last evening. His many G white friends were glad to see him in the orchestra row last evening.

Attorney M. Fulton is here from Oklahoma City on matters before the Supreme court.

Charles Howard, United States revenue collector, is here from El Reno.

R. J. Kennedy, trapping manufacturer agent for the Santa Fe, is here from

J. E. Nissley, manager of the Guthrie creamery, is in Enid.

Castoria.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bear the Signature

LOST—Lady's small gold watch, plain case, open face. Reward will be paid to finder. Return to 116 North Broad or phone 383. Mrs. F. M. Ross.

FOR SALE—A small quantity of No. 1 milti testing 5 per cent of cream, delivered daily at 8 per quart. Address Tom. Amie, Geal Del. Guthrie, Okla.

My Men's or Ladies' $1.50 and $2.00 Shoes are big values. See them at Robinson's.

Corporation Commission

The Corporation commission today issued a second order requiring the Santa Fe to install a switch and shipping platform at Capitol Hill, a suburb of Oklahoma City.

Chairman Jack Love received word today from Gay, Player, whom the commission has engaged as their telephone expert, that he will arrive Saturday morning from the South to assume his duties.

Captain J. M. Lee, of Houston, Tex., who has a practical all around railroad man, and an experienced civil engineer, having held positions as chief engineer and superintendent of several Texas roads, will arrive in the city this afternoon to confer with the members of the Corporation commission relative to his possible employment as chief engineer.

Speaker J. W. McNeal returned last evening from a trip to Oklahoma City.

SHORT CUTS TO THE NEWS

The football squad of the A. & M. college, at Stillwater, passed through the city last evening en route from Alma where they played the Northwestern Normal school yesterday. The game resulted 13 to 9 in favor of the Normal school team.

The Criminal Court of Appeals meets tomorrow forenoon to hand down decisions. The court has under advisement several life sentences, murder cases and three capital punishment cases, which will probably be passed up tomorrow.

J. S. Lyon yesterday filed a petition in voluntary bankruptcy. The John Lyon company were about to withdraw their agency and to put all orders on an equality the petition was filed. Sale collections on farm machinery is the cause. The assets considerably more than the liabilities.

Mr. and Mrs. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Powell and Miss Saul drove from Stillwater in an automobile to witness "The Land of Nod" performance at the Brooks last night, returning home this morning.

State Librarian S. O. Davies returned yesterday from Sedgewick.

Entertainment Attorneys E. S. Caldwell of the state agency came up from Oklahoma City last evening.

Success and good digestion are closely allied to Grapes - Nuts
"There's a Reason."

PROSPECTUS.

Thursday.
Mrs. J. C. Strang entertains the Thursday Afternoon Whist club with a luncheon.

Mesdames Trapp, Bed and Sitterley entertain at luncheons in afternoon at Elks club rooms.

Friday.

Kooney Mooney Shah club meets in afternoon with Miss Grace Houghton. Domestic Science club holds demonstration meeting at home of Mrs. Anna B. Dodson. Demonstrations—Desserts and how to serve.

Saturday.

Smart Set meets in afternoon with Mrs. H. H. Smock. Daughters of Confederacy meet at Carnegie Library in afternoon.

Mrs. and Mrs. T. F. McKeown left this morning for Ft. Smith, Arkansas, to visit with their daughter.

Mrs. C. Q. Lowery is here from Oklahoma City visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Schell, on North Broad street.

Miss Ruth Ferrier returned last evening from a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. E. R. Gregg, in Muskogee. Mrs. W. H. Brown is visiting relatives in Crescent.

Mrs. Frank Pieratt returned to her home in Crescent last evening after a visit in the city with friends.

Mrs. L. D. Marr returned to her home in Tulsa last evening after spending a week in the capital city with her husband, Secretary Marr, of the school land commission.

All women temperance workers are requested to meet at the Tabernacle on East Oklahoma avenue, Saturday night, for the rally.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Nisley will entertain at their new home, 1424 West Noble avenue, the members and friends of the West Guthrie M. E. Church in honor of their former pastor, Dr. H. W. Baker and family, on Friday evening, the 16th, inst., from 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock.

Mrs. S. W. Chaney has returned from Enid where she went to visit her son, Arthur, who is playing with The Bell Boy Musical Comedy company. He has been with the company almost a year and is making a hit with his singing.

Tuesday—His majesty the emperor gave audience and luncheon to Admiral Sperry and thirty of the higher officers; dinner in the evening by the minister of marine at the Navy club.

Luncheon by the minister of war at the arsenal garden; garden party in the afternoon by Admiral Togo in the Imperial gardens; dinner in the evening by the prime minister at his official residence.

Saturday, Oct. 17—Arrival of fleet at Yokohama; exchange of official visits; dinner in the evening by the Japanese commander-in-chief.

Sunday—The city of Yokohama will give a reception in the park to all the officers and 800 men; dinner in the evening by the mayor and representative citizens, followed by a reception at the governor of Numagawa at his official residence.

Monday—Admiral Sperry, accompanied by his flag officers and captains, arrive at 9:45 in Tokyo; official visits; dinner by Ambassador O'Brien at the Imperial hotel.

Tuesday—His majesty the emperor gave audience and luncheon to Admiral Sperry and thirty of the higher officers; dinner in the evening by the minister of marine at the Navy club.

Luncheon by the minister of war at the arsenal garden; garden party in the afternoon by Admiral Togo in the Imperial gardens; dinner in the evening by the prime minister at his official residence.

Wednesday—Luncheon by the mayor of Tokyo; afternoon reception by the city of Tokio in Hibya park; dinner by the minister of foreign affairs at his official residence; performances later at the Kabuki theatre by the Bankers' club.

Friday—Forenoon and afternoon services for the American fleet; Japanese dinner at the Maple club.

Saturday—Departure of the fleet.

A large number of entertainments for the warrant officers and men, extending throughout the week, have been arranged by the Japanese navy and by the municipal authorities of Tokio and Yokohama.

Among the box parties at "The Land of Nod" performance at the Brooks last night were Private Secretary J. S. Sandlin, wife and baby, and Assistant Attorney General and Mrs. G. Spelman occupying this front box on the left. Acting Secretary of State Leo Myers gave a box party to the employees of his office and guests of Mrs. Myers. Among those in the party were: Misses Alberta Jennings, Belinda, Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Sayre, a sister of Mrs. Myers; Mrs. J. J. Myers, of New York City, mother of Mr. Myers, who is spending the winter in the capital city; State Examiner and Mrs. C. A. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Myers and children.

A. R. Eastman's box party included Miss Norma Greer, Mrs. Weiser, of Stillwater, and Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Eastman. Mesdames J. M. Brooks, Will Brooks and Ted Brooks also occupied a box.

Mr. and Mrs. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Powell and Miss Saul drove from Stillwater in an automobile to witness "The Land of Nod" performance at the Brooks last night, returning home this morning.

Philip Bocklinger, father of Mrs. Louise Ashby and H. H. Bocklinger, died at the home of Mrs. Ashby, 1822 West Warner avenue, Tuesday at 5:30 a.m. Time of funeral services will be announced later as other members of the family are yet to arrive.

Mrs. C. F. Cunningham died at the family residence, 702 West Washington, Wednesday evening at six o'clock, after an illness, with congenital heart disease from last January. The deceased was a native of America, Kansas; daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Anderson, pioneer settlers of Guthrie. She was married to Mr. Cunningham May 1st, 1892, and is the mother of two sons, five and three years old. The deceased was but 25 years of age, known to almost all residents of this city, having been for a long time a central telephone operator. Her husband, the above named, was eight years younger than she. Her son, Philip, 18, is now in the ice plant. Funeral to be held on the 18th at 3 o'clock, interment to be made in Summit View cemetery.

The funeral services of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Galloway were conducted from the First Presbyterian church this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Harry Omar officiating. Interment was made in Summit View cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Malone, of Woodward, and J. P. Galloway of St. Louis, were among the most of their relatives in attendance. The deceased is survived by two daughters and a son.

BASEBALL

(Continued from page 20.)

Steinfeldt walked, but was out trying to steal second. Schmidt to Schaefer. Hofman struck out. Rossman.

Detroit—Rossman struck out. Schaefer walked. Schmidt struck out and Schaefer was called trying to steal second. Kling to Tinker. No runs.

Fifth inning.

Chicago—O'Leary made a great catch of Klein's fly; he was running backwards as he caught it and turned a back somersault. But hung onto the ball. Kling walked, and went to second on Overall's sacrifice. Schmidt to Rossman. Schaefer walked. Evans doubled to center, scoring Kling and putting Schaefer on third. Schultz grounded out. O'Leary to Rossman. One run.

Detroit—Coughlin was safe on a scratch hit to Steinfeldt. Donovan struck out, and McIntyre doubled down the first base line, ground rules holding Coughlin at third. O'Leary flew out to Hofman and Crawford struck out. No runs.

Sixth inning.

Chicago—Chance beat out a bunt to Coughlin and went to second on Steinfeldt's sacrifice. To Ransom unassisted. Hofman's fly went to McIntyre and Crawford took Tinker's line drive. No runs.

Detroit—Cobb walked, but was out when he was hit between bases by Schaefer's grounders. Hoffman threw him out to Schaefer.

Chicago—Kling's fly went to Crawford at first. Overall singled cleanly to center, but was out when he was hit between bases by Schaefer's grounders. Hoffman threw him out to Schaefer.

Detroit—Steinfeldt threw Coughlin out to Chance, and Tinker to Overall. Coughlin struck out, and Tinker to Overall. Coughlin to Overall. One run.

Ninth inning.

Chicago—Evans beat out an infield hit to Rossman, as Donovan could not reach first base in time to cover. Schaefer sacrificed, Schmidt to Rossman. Chance singled to left but McIntyre's fine throw held Rivers at third. Steinfeldt struck out. Chance and Evans tried a double steal but the throwing between Schmidt and Schaefer was perfect and Evans was caught at the plate. No runs.

Detroit—O'Leary popped up to Chance. Evans threw out Crawford at first. Tinker and Chance attended to Cobb. No runs.

Ninth inning.

Chicago—Hofman struck out and Tinker singled past Coughlin. Kling grounded to O'Leary and was out at first. Tinker tried to make third on the play, but Rossman threw him out to Coughlin. No runs.

Detroit—Rossman went out. Evans to Chance. Steinfeldt threw out Schaefer at first and Kling captured Schaefer's pop-fly. No runs.

The score:

DETROIT.	AB	R	BH	PO	A
	2	0	1	0	0
O'LEARY.	AB	R	BH	PO	A
	3	0	2	0	0
CRAWFORD, c.	AB	R	BH	PO	A
	4	0	1	0	0
COBB, r.	AB	R	BH	PO	A
	3	0	1	0	0
DOVAN,	AB	R	BH	PO	A
	16	3	0	5	0
MCINTYRE,	AB	R	BH	PO	A
	2	0	1	0	0
O'LEARY,	AB	R	BH	PO	A
	2	0	2	0	0
CRAVEN,	AB	R	BH	PO	A
	4	0	1	0	0
HOFFMAN,	AB	R	BH	PO	A
	2	0	1	0	0
KLING,	AB	R	BH	PO	A
	3	0	1	0	0
MCINTYRE,	AB</td				